

The Writings of Fredrick M Smith

Compiled by Pat Chadwick

Fred M wrote and preached about Zion continually. Onward to Zion was his watchword. This now must become our theme in this late hour of the latter days in which we live. We must become a prepared people and procrastinate no longer. We must with great determination go "Onward to Zion".

Fred M in a sermon said: "I have been calling for preparation for Zion...Preparation is and will be continuously necessary if Zion is to have development that we desire...I will look with the utmost concern, with discouragement and even disheartenment, upon the day when this people shall be satisfied with its achievements. I mean by that a people who have reached and passed their goals without re-erecting new ideas and fixing new goals is a people who are going backwards instead of forward.

Where is our opportunity? When is it? Is it here? Is it in the future or is it passing? My concern...is that we are in greatest danger of passing our opportunity. In other words, the very road that we have been looking for in the journey of our progress upward is so close at hand that there is danger that this people will pass that road without entering, and when they do it means that their opportunity is forever lost and either some other people or this people reorganized must accomplish that work.

There has never been a forward movement among the children of God since the beginning of the world that the opposing power has not sought to procrastinate the day of its culmination. And the warning that must be raised to this people is that they must be constantly on their guard against those opportunities sized by satanic power to still further procrastinate the time when we shall establish Zion."

For behold, this life is the time for men to prepare to meet God; yea, behold, the day of this life is the day for men to perform their labors. And now as I said unto you before, as ye have had so many witnesses, therefore I beseech of you, that ye do not procrastinate the day of your repentance until the end;

For after this day of life, which is given us to prepare for eternity, behold, if we do not improve our time while in this life, then cometh the night of darkness, wherein there can be no labor performed (Alma 16:228-230).
